Departure of a Student with a Costly Special Education Program – Previously Charged to Fund 27, Project 011 or 019

Review the students with disabilities who graduated, aged out, or moved away from the district of residence in the last two years (FY 2012 and FY 2013). Did the student have any of the following costs (charged locally):

- One-on-one Paraprofessional or Attendant Care Aide (even if just part of the day)
- Specialized Transportation
- Private or public placement (by the IEP team) tuition
- Educational interpreter
- Hearing Impaired or Visually Impaired Teacher (such as one contracted through a CESA)

Just a reminder – for the student’s cost to qualify as an exception in FY 2013, the aggregate cost of direct student service costs must be greater than $6,335.

Change in services for a Student with a Costly Special Education Program – Previously Charged to Fund 27, Project 011 or 019

Review the students with disabilities who were enrolled in the district in FY 2012. Since that year, have any of the following services for a student changed (costs were charged locally):

- Placement
 - 3- or 4-year old transitions out of an off-site early childhood program into Kindergarten
 - Private or public tuition – such as an alternative setting
- Specialized Transportation
 - Example: student was on an individual route but now is on my regular route
- Student received cochlear implant and no longer needs educational interpreter
